

Investment Agriculture Foundation Welcomes New Team Lead, Communications and Public Relations

February 17, 2016 – The Investment Agriculture Foundation of B.C. (IAF) is pleased to announce the appointment of Kelsi Stiles to the position of Team Lead, Communications and Public Relations.

“We are excited to welcome Kelsi to our team,” says Peter Donkers, IAF executive director. “Kelsi’s background and qualifications will be a great asset to the Foundation as well as to the agriculture and agri-food communities that we serve.”

Kelsi is a communications professional with over 10 years of experience in communications and public relations. She brings a variety of communications strengths to the Investment Agriculture Foundation, including stakeholder relations, community engagement and social media. She comes to IAF following successful employment at the Greater Victoria Coalition to End Homelessness.

“The future of agriculture and food production in BC are important to me. I am excited to join an organization whose mission and mandate is to foster great ideas that lead to innovative projects,” she says.

Based in the Victoria office, Kelsi Stiles can be contacted at 250.356.1772, or by email at kstiles@iafbc.ca.

About the Investment Agriculture Foundation of B.C.

IAF is an industry-led, not-for-profit organization representing the agriculture, food processing, farm supply and post farm gate sectors across British Columbia. Celebrating our 20th Anniversary this year, IAF works with our industry partners and funders to invest in projects that enhance the competitiveness, profitability and sustainability of BC’s agriculture and agri-food industry. IAF helps transform ideas into solutions.
