Investment Agriculture Foundation of BC Appoints New Senior Manager of Finance, Human Resources & Administration

February 12, 2020 – Victoria, B.C. The Investment Agriculture Foundation of BC (IAF) is pleased to announce that Judy Jacklin will lead the Finance and Administration Team, effective February 24th, 2020.

As the Senior Manager of Finance, Human Resources & Administration, Ms. Jacklin will be responsible for ensuring the effective management of these roles within IAF. This is a role that will require strategic, innovative and collaborative competencies and Judy will be directly supporting Michelle Koski, the Executive Director, to implement the Board's vision and priorities.

Judy brings 13+ years of progressive senior level not-for-profit financial management and accounting experience IAF. She earned her CPA, CMA designation in 2004. Throughout her career Judy has been successful in many challenging roles which included responsibility for establishing financial best practices, accountability and transparency, sound leadership, team building and mentoring, and monitoring of internal controls.

Returning home to her roots in Victoria and to the IAF after almost 5 years as the Manager of Finance and Operations at the IWK Health Centre Charitable Foundation in Halifax, NS, Judy looks forward to contributing to IAF's strategic transformation as a leader and a team member.

Ms. Jacklin's appointment will join the team in Victoria from February 24th 2020.

The Investment Agriculture Foundation of BC (IAF) is an industry-led, not-for-profit organization representing the agriculture, food processing, farm supply and post farm gate sectors across British Columbia. Since 1996, we have worked with our industry partners and funders to invest in projects that enhance the competitiveness, profitability and sustainability of BC agriculture and agri-food.
